PERSONAL STATEMENT

- Please attach a one-page statement in which you describe why you want to be considered for REACH and how your past community experiences will make you an invaluable REACH intern.
- On a supplementary page, please describe your career goals and explain how REACH can help you develop the type of skills you will need to achieve those goals.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- One letter of recommendation is required, preferably from a former or current professor, teaching assistant, program/research director, or employer, and may be sent directly from your recommender.
- A recent college transcript sent directly from the Office of Admissions.
- A personal interview will be granted to selected individuals and required for acceptance. On-site interviews will be conducted from April 1-11, 2008. Telephone interviews may be arranged on an individual basis.

Please send inquiries to Nghe Yang, MD at dnyyang@gmail.com. Applications may be mailed to Asian Health Services, REACH Internship, Attn: Nghe Yang, MD, 818 Webster St., Oakland, CA 94607. All applications must be postmarked by March 14, 2008.

By signing below, I acknowledge that participation in the entirety of the program is expected and required of all REACH interns. In the event my application is selected, I will accept the offer only if I am able to participate in the full eight weeks of the program.
